Paws to Pet

If you're looking for a new place to enjoy your favorite treat or cup of joe, try a cat café.

These restaurants are fun, feline-centered spots that give homeless cats a second chance.

The idea behind these restaurants is simple: eat, drink, and pet stray cats. And hopefully adopt one too.

These shelter/restaurants believe that cats shouldn't be in cages. When people can observe cats in a homey atmosphere, they understand how these animals interact as pets. This cozy environment encourages adoptions.

The cafés are filled with stray kittens and feral cats who would be euthanized if they didn't have this second chance at life at a cat café.

Discussion Questions

- Purr-fect? What do you think of the idea of herding cats while nibbling on cupcakes? Talk about how these cafés can give cats a second chance at life.
- Some people didn't know what to make of Jesus' resurrection. They only understood that He had defeated death. Talk about how His resurrection was much more than just rising from the dead. Why does Jesus' death count as a sacrifice for our sins?
- Discuss this thought: Jesus is either the Savior of the world or else a cruel madman—there is no middle ground. Dispute the idea that Jesus was a nice guy who wrongly claimed He was the Son of God and whose resurrection was a hoax.
