Paradise?

When Hurricane Irma struck Florida's coast, Kristen Bell found herself stuck in Orlando for a movie she's been shooting.

As the storm raged on, the Frozen star got to work bringing her sweetly famous voice to hurricane evacuees.

Several nursing home residents were moved to her hotel for shelter. The actress mingled with the senior citizens, playing bingo and snapping selfies with them.

Bell also played her song "For the First Time in Forever" for a crowd of middle school students. "I hope maybe some of these songs are running through your head the rest of the day," she told the audience, "and it will take your mind off Irma."

Discussion Questions

- How would you have reacted to hear the actual Kristen Bell (a.k.a. Anna) performing her Frozen songs in your hotel? Would it take your mind off a hurricane outside?
- As a Christian, you have the promise of heaven. When you struggle here on earth, you can be sure that one day you will spend eternity with your Savior. Talk about how this is the ultimate comfort.
- In 2 Kings 2:9–12, God takes Elijah into heaven. How is Elijah's experience of going to heaven different than what most believers will experience?
